

Technical Corrections to the Household Goods Consumer Protection Regulations

Issued by the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration as a Final Rule and Immediately Effective on November 17, 2023

Link to Federal Register Notice: <https://www.federalregister.gov/d/2023-24160>

The Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) amended Part 375 Household Goods Consumer Protection regulations in 2022. On November 17, 2023, the agency issued a final rule not subject to public comment to make several technical corrections to the regulations following the 2022 amendments.

These corrections are as follows:

- 1. Restores language clarifying that a new binding or non-binding estimate prepared after a g\]ddYf`HbXYfg`UXX]hcbU`[ccXg`cf`fYei]fYg`UXX]hcbU`gYfj]Wg`a i ghÍ UWW fUH`m`]glz`b`XYHU]ž
H`Y`UXX]hcbU`\ ci gY`c`X`[ccXg`cf`gYfj]Wg`]bWf`XYX`]b`H`Y`g\]da YbHÍ

This technical correction does not change the requirement that a mover must prepare a new estimate in situations where additional goods are tendered or additional services are required. Given that most movers have continued to detail the additional goods or s orlc 2 Tf 0 0 12 31 m0 g0 GG 2 Tf 5 Tf 5 50 nre a

